

1843 SARATGA SPRINGS MAP SHOWING LOCATIONS IN SOLOMON NORTHUP'S NARRATIVE

Neighborhood in which Solomon lived; and the general location of Cephas Parker's store. →

The United States Hotel →
Notice the grand size & prominent placement on what was then a boulevard lined with newly planted elms. This is where Solomon played his violin for the wealthy and conversed with slaves accompanying their masters to Saratoga Springs.

↑
To Washington Hall, North Broadway where Solomon worked as hack driver.

1. "On the corner of Congress street and Broadway near the tavern. . . kept by Mr. Moon, I was met by two gentlemen..."
2. "We occupied a house belonging to Daniel O'Brien, on the north side of Washington street..."
3. "...the stores of Mr. Cephas Parker and Mr. William Perry..."
4. "While living at the United States Hotel, I frequently met with slaves..."
5. "Isaac Taylor kept a large boarding house, known as Washington Hall, at the north end of Broadway. He employed me to drive a hack..."

← Corner of Broadway & Congress Street. Solomon was lured from this corner in 1841. This area was the location of Moon's Tavern to which Solomon refers ~ Mr. Moon is referred to in the book and cast in the movie.
